

I have three children, the youngest is 12 year old. I absolutely hate the fact that he is subjected to the constant stream of filth on television. If it isn't murder, assault, or swearing, it is sex, nudity and more sex. Can't we parents get a break? We pay dearly for cable and feel that we should be offered ala carte services as an alternative to cancelling.